After consulting with the other third parties and learning that the ACLU has proposed Monday, January 25 as a deadline for responding to the motion to compel, we feel it's most efficient for all third parties to respond to the motion to compel on the same day. Accordingly, we will be asking the court for the same deadline. Based on your previous representations, we assume that date is not acceptable to you. If, however, you will agree to that schedule, please let us know immediately. Otherwise, we will go forward with our Opposition to the Motion to Shorten Time.

Ms. Kramer,

Thank you for your email. We would be willing to stipulate that the opposition to the motion be filed by the ECF deadline on Wednesday (essentially midnight on Wednesday).

Regards,

Jesse

We intend to oppose your Motion to Shorten Time on Tuesday pursuant to the local rules. Will you stipulate to our opposition to the motion to compel being filed Thursday, January 21?
